Amazing Grace

*Amazing grace! how sweet the sound,
that saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost but now am found,
was blind but now I see.*

*'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
and grace my fears relieved;
how precious did that grace appear
the hour I first believed!*

*The Lord has promised good to me,
his word my hope secures;
he will my shield and portion be
as long as life endures.*

*Through many dangers, toils, and
snares,
I have already come;
'tis grace hath brought me safe thus
far,
and grace will lead me home.*

*Yea, when this flesh and heart shall
fail,
And mortal life shall cease,
I shall possess, within the veil,
A life of joy and peace.*

*The world shall soon dissolve like
snow,
The sun refuse to shine;
But God, who called me here below,
Shall be forever mine.*

*When we've been there ten thousand years,
bright shining as the sun,
we've no less days to sing God's praise
than when we'd first begun.*

Biography

Shuo was born in Hunan, China. From a young age, he exemplified the spirit of adventure. As a child, he moved to Beijing to attend school, living there with his cousin and her family for 9 years. He studied physics at Sichuan University, where he also developed a passion for environmental protection. Always curious about the world and other people, Shuo brought happiness to everyone he met, wherever he went.

He earned his PhD in physics from Kansas State University; his excellence as a research scientist inspired his department head to specifically recommend him for a position at IBM Aspera in the San Francisco Bay Area. He made breakthroughs in the areas of networking and data science, and his colleagues both admired and respected his brilliant mind, his self-discipline, and his self-imposed high standards. Shuo was an outstanding collaborator and was always eager to learn new skills in order to solve the problem at hand.

Shuo made everyone he met feel like a friend, as he was consistently kind and generous with his time, energy, and encouragement of others. He enjoyed ping pong, tennis, traveling, nature photography, Krav Maga, cooking – and he loved inviting others to join him.

Memories of Shuo's laugh and kind demeanor will be remembered by all.
